

● SIDE-A

1. THE MAN

You see, I'm real
You see, come feel
Got every little thing
That I want now
Got every little thing
It's all gone now
It's all gone now

You see, I'm here
You die, don't fear
Got every little thing
That you want now
Got every little thing
That you need now
You feel it now

You see me smile
Your eyes, one mile
Got every little thing
To please me now
Got every little thing
That I want now
It's all right now

It's a fool and ever sees it's time to lose
But he has to run to win some peace of mind
It's the love that puts me down from what I am
Yeah, cause I dare to kick against them out of plan
It's my belief that good will win through in the end
That keeps me smiling as I use another day
It's a man with a new car and a smile
He takes my money for the thing I most desire

I saw the man, I saw the man
I saw the man and he saw me all right
I saw the man, I saw the man
I saw the man and he saw me all right
I saw the man, I saw the man...

2. HOLD ME BACK

Hold me back
You're much too young to understand the game
Your mother never heard you scream like that in pain
The way you scratch and bite is all in vain
Your screwing eyes is driving me insane

Thirteen summers passed by your door
You'd think it's time to stop
Or rap and don't tell all the neighbour boys
Your Mama's out of town
Thirteen summers got left behind
The minute you found out
And be that you're blue has her hypnotized
And drive a man insane

Hold me back
The look that's on your face just makes me pale
You keep on licking your lips I'm gonna land in jail
You sigh and moan and tell me I can't fail
You keep on bragging what you got ain't for sale

3. TIME TO DIE

It's on at hand
It's time to rest
Time to die

Refrain
Lie, only light filled your sky
Silver wings you've made to fly
Things you saw that made you cry
Never ever thought you'd die
Was a time you were young and strong
Didn't feel in a man
You ruled that day

It's time to rest
Your race is run
You gave your best
Back to back was down one another
Wasn't anyone alive we could make ourself a over Nor did you feel you're in
Rain did come, we could hardly make a living
You'd never ever moan
We just do what we was given
We gave you more that's seen

Do out the bad whom the women who were with him
There was blood on the land
The younger men for killing
Only he's met till he went blue
Ask old knight when he lost her holy woman
For the past ten years I feel my time a-coming
I came through poor the same

4. RED GLOW

The back-bone in my brain just exploded
When I heard the congregation give a cheer
I was high and the preacher called me freaky
I said that wasn't what I came to hear

Refrain
I'll shout a praise for the warm red glow
I'll give praise to the warm red glow

A cracker knocked me down and left me windy
So I ran and asked the driver for a ride
Well just them as he gave in from seeking
I was hurt to moan, I think I've lost my high

The crowds plugged me in a can treating
But I hadn't touched a drop to their dismay
So high and a warmest blood consisted
I swear the gents, my blood would be okay

I'll sing a praise to the warm red glow
I'll sing a praise to the warm red glow

Then I sat and told him made me hungry
And the payment well there's beneath my feet
I'll eat against and old man seven months
And I asked him if he'd sleep in one's view

● SIDE-B

1. SAN ANTONE

San Antone, red dust is on the wagon
The road is long
San Antone, getting bust, we adhere
Only one-way to thee
Getting by, let me come and shoot the bone
Bye bye, you know I dig them with my eyes wide
I can't remember why
But I've come back that's the fact

Bye bye, I dig the city and the city sights
I can't imagine why
But you can't make you all, you can't break me

San Antone, I'm gonna run you down
San Antone, you won't remember me
But I've come back and that's a fact

But I've come back, I've got me a ride
Let me come and shoot the bone

2. GOVERNMENT MAN

Got word from home this morning
It told a sour tale indeed
It was hard to bear the news about the family
I broke right down and cried
Last time I'd been home combing
Things were really looking fine
Broke my heart to learn the truth about the mission

But now you got to move
Man come without a warning
Riding on a title deed
He come back to tell everybody that to leave the land
Didn't tell em why

Twenty years of work basin
Now you're told to leave
It ain't fair to ask a man to lay his living down
His family's got to eat

Refrain
You're down by the government man
He probably took it back
He tried to make a one-man stand
Walked out alone and tried to fight
But Mama begged the government man
To call upon his men
If he promised not to take his land
For the new dada here by the dawn
And he'd never never see us no more

God gives the good the answer
Working hard and trying to be
But it's tough to see the other side
All getting rich and fat
When you hardly make it pay
Drain, drive from working too hard
You got to find another home
It was hard to break the land
And get a crop to grow
They'd never understand

Government men got a heart of stone
Run up the land and took away a home
Something in the air and I have to hit the road home

3. MONEY BAG

4. SITTIN' BACK EASY

I'm just sittin' back easy
Watching her make him stare
She says she needs attention
They quit to laugh
But she's no longer there

I've been making my mind up
Watching her have her fun
She talks of her frustration
We wonder where she's gone

She only went in to be hidden from the sun
She came a-looking scared
But didn't say what she had done
She told me I can hold her
If I promised to be near
But she said that I'm gonna cry and stoned

I've been trying to tell her
What she already knows
She said she's always known me
She holds me back
And then she lets me go
I'm just sitting back easy
Watching her make him stare
She moves in my direction
She stops to cry
She says she doesn't care

She only worries in the terms she'll understand
He says she can make it
And she screams in her delight
She tells me I'm a loser
But to deem I must be mad
And she shows that I really cry
Said she's really someone's friend
